Begins To-Day in THE EVENING WORLD. NEW TOTAL BURNEN BURNEN

Totorid.

WORLD "WANTS" Co On Forever.

"WANTS" Printed This Year, Which Is About as Many as All the Other New York Papers Combined Contained.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1888.

HIS PRETTY PUPIL.

Hawkins Hanged for the Murder of His Mother.

up all night, that he could have anything he wanted, but he declined to order. His cell was opened and the young man alked up and down the corridor, stopping here and there to speak to prisoners who happened to be awake, He stood for some time in front of the cell occupied by Slowey, the Sag Harbor mur-derer, and talked with him in a low voice. He was cheerful and apparently cool and re-

He had taken a bath before dressing, and in his new suit looks anything but a mur-

Sheriff Petty walked through the corridor ad said; cheerfully : "Who's got a cigar for

Hawkins responded promptly with "Here's me for you, Sheriff, but look out for it, it may kill you, for it is one of Slowey's,"

He clasped hands with the Sheriff and alked with him a few minutes, reminding im of his promise to send one of his picures to his affianced, and thanking him for se attention he had bestowed upon him.

Henry R. Pitts, another of the watch, was selined to be garrulous and was telling a very long story, when Hawkins suddenly inerrupted him with the remark :

"Haven't you a blister on your tongue, you have talked so long?" THE PRIEST ABRIVES.

At 6 o'clock Father McGlineby celebrated mas at St. John's Church, and at 6.45 he apenred to the jail and administered commu sion to Hawkins and had pravers in the cell. At 8.32 Hawkins was marched out of the ail behind the executioner, and at 8.33 the pe had been cut.

Hawkins did not waver while he stood for s sw seconds under the rope, and when the axe dropped his form sprang four feet into the air and dropped back with a dull sound that was plainly audible.

The body hung quietly, and hardly a remor was noticed. The arms were pinioned, but there was no rope on his legs.

He was pronounced dead at 8.38, but was left hanging until 8.45, when the body was cut down and removed to the Court-House, where it was prepared for burial. It will be taken to Bayshore this afternoon.

The Sheriff admitted only the statutory The Sheriff admitted only the statutory number to witness the hanging. Among those present was Dr. Preston, of Patchogue, who was on the medical staff at the hanging of Benjaman Johnson, who shot his wife in Sayville fitty years ago. He was also at the hanging of Nicholas Behan, the last execution in Suffolk County before the present one. This was thirty-three years ago.

HIS LAST NIGHT ON EARTH.

Matricide Hawkins Calm and Composed and Without Bravade.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] RIVERHEAD, L. I., Dec. 11.-Franklin Asbury Hawkins's last night on earth was quiet and peaceful. The day had been an exciting one. The few friends and relatives who had not deserted him paid their farewell visit. Miss Hattle Shreck, of Brooklyn, the girl to whom he was afflanced, arrived in Riverhead in the morning and was permitted to spend s few minutes with the prisoner.

The interview was very affecting. The conversation related to the spiritual welfare of each. The condemned man endeavored to comfort her with the assurance that he had experienced an entire change of heart and would meet her in heaven. The girl was taken from the cell weeping hysterically.

After a while she consented to examine her petrothed's effects, and took from among them such things as she cared to preserve as

Shortly after Miss Shreck had left, Hawkins's sister with a Miss Ketcham, his cousin and his uncle, J. Clarence Hawkins, and the Rev. D. McMullen, all of Islip, visited him. Hawkins's eyes filled with tears as he em-which had pervaded his life—a desire for revenge.

It was after 10 o'clock when the watchers looking into his cell roused the young man from his reveries, and he prepared himself for bed.

His sleep was disturbed. He rolled from side to side, and several times raised himself upon his elbow and stared fixedly out through the grated doorway at the deathwatch, who dozed in their chairs. It was a quiet night for the last one on earth.

The Sheriff was around all night.

He felt the position keenly and was fearful lest something might happen to his prisoner. Joe Atkinson, the hangman, had done his preliminary work and the gallows stood below in the night air, and from the cross-beam moving to said fro in the breeze hung the rope from the end of which the condemned man would dangle in the morning.

Once or twice during the night a crowd collected on the street near the jail, and stared with morbid curiosity at the grante building.

It was a long after midnight before Hawkins building.

It was long after midnight before Hawkins appeared to sleep soundly. He was awake at 3 o'clock and got out of his bod, and, after speaking pleasantly to his watchers, went back to his couch, and in a few minutes was once more asleen.

HE WAS ALWAYS CRUEL.

Young Hawkins's Enricest Years Marked by a Murderer's Temper.

Franklin Asbury Hawkins began twenty-three years ago the life which this morning ended on the gallows. He was the first child which followed the union of Capt. Franklin Hawkins, of Islip, and Miss Clock, the daughter of a very respectable family. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins moved in the best society of the township. Franklin Hawkins was in the lumber trade and amassed a comfortable fortune. The couple lived in fine style and fortune. The couple lived in fine style and the infant Asbury was surfounded with comfort and luxury.

He was a cold, sullen child, repaying the indulgence of his parents and those that surrounded him by vicious and vindictive ways and stolid insensibility to kindness.

In point of feeling, he was not merely cold. He loved cruelty and revelled in inflicting pain on harmloss animals. To choke a kriten or tear the legs from a quivering frog was a delightful recreation to him. Mrs. Hawkins

MADNESS. A JILT OF A DANCING MASTER JEALOUSY AND

THE COMBINATION THAT MADE GIOVANNI PROF. WEISS WON BUT WOULD NOT WED GENOADA MURDERER.

His Victim Lies To-Day at the Morgue While the Slaver Bides from the Detectives-A Dark-Eyed Little Girl Prostrated by Nervous Shock Over the Tragedy-The Murderer's Eccentricities.

An unidentified man of perhaps twenty four years, in whose pockets were found papers bearing the name of Harry Nowitz, lies dead at the Morgue to-day and his murderer, evidently a madman, is still at large.

At 5.30 last evening this young man en-tered the basement cobbler's shop of Rossario Disalvo, an Italian, at 232 East Forty-sixth street, to offer for sale table-covers and bedspreads, of which he was a peddler.

Seated at the shoemaker's bench at work was Giovanni Genoa, a tall, handsome man of thirty years. Nowitz seated himself on a hair-cloth sofa against the wall beside a pretty, big-eved Italian girl of thirteen years. Cecilia Disalvo.

The cobbler scowled and hammered in a nail with vicious energy, and when the smooth, clean young peddler cheerily chucked the maiden under the chin and exclaimed jocosely, "Pretty girl!" he swore in claimed jocosely, "Pretty girl!" he swore in Italian and, throwing his hammer at the visitor, ordered him, with many hissed imprecations, to leave the shop.

Cecilia screamed and fied to the living apartments in the rear of the shop, and the peddler, still smiling, arose to take his leave.

The infuriated cobbler was not done, however, He arose from his work with his shocknife in hand, and leaping upon the younger man, cut and slashed vigorously.

The first blow went straight through the stranger's right lung and the blood followed the knife out and spurted on the dingy wall of the cramped little shop.

A second blow made a gash in the left side of the young man, as he staggered out of the shop and up the steps to the sidewalk.

The infuriated Italian, following close, stabbed Nowitz in the left side of the neck, severing the carotid artery and jugular vein.

By this time the two were one hundred feet west of the shoe shop, and Nowitz fell, bleeding to death before any one reached him. The murderer ran on and turned into Third avenue.

A few minutes later he was at another base.

Contradictory reports are circulating regarding the match between Charley Mitchell and Dominick McCaffrey.

The despatch from Philadelphia printed in morning paper, giving an alleged denial of he match by Mitchell himself, has raised a doubt in the minds of many as to the cor-doubt in the minds of many as to the correctness of the reports which came from Philadelphia yesterday.

William O'Brien had not returned from Washington up to 1 o'clock this afternoon, but his secretary, speaking for him, said that the match has surely been made, as stated in THE EVENING WORLD of yesterday.

To-day it is stated that s match has also been arranged between Jake Kilrain and Pat Killen, to take place in Jersey City Jan. 23.

Mitchell and Kilrain are expected in this city soon to confer with Richard K. Fox regarding Sullivan's challenge to Kilrain. Mr. Fox said this morning that he had heard nothing from them and did not expect them to-day.

Powderly's Picture Taken Down. Perranuac, Dec. 11. -Mr. Powderly's picture FITSBURG, Dec. 11.—Mr. Powderly's picture has been taken from the wall of the headquarters of District Assembly No. 3 and hidden in a closet.

The cork workers will hold a meeting to-night and withdraw from the Knights of Labor.

Sweet Flowers.

The fairest buds are often the first to wither, and the ravages of disease make havoe with the beauty, as well as the strength and happiness of the fair sex. The prevalent disorders among american women are those of a most distressing description. These "weaknesses," as they are suggestively termed, insidiously say the health, and the patient becomes pale and emaciated, the appetite grows fields and feeble; she loses strength as the attacks increase in severity, and is in despair. There is relief for all such sufferers in Da. Pience's world-famed favoratre parents in Da. Pience's world-famed favoratre parents in the sufference of the patients of the "drag-ging-down" pains, return of appetite, and in due course, vigorous health.

Explosion and Fire in Chicago This

On the Nuptial Day, When the $1,500 Troussean Was Ready, the Buid-Headed Groom Sent a Letter of Declination-Now He Is Threatened With a Musty

Cupid has been making another muddle. This time it is pretty Emma Mollenbar and a bald-headed instructor of dancing, Prof. Ernest J, Weiss. Ernest met, loved, courted Several Miraculous Escapes and an and-did not marry the beautiful Fraulein Mollenbar. "Hence these tears"

Really there are no tears, Miss Mollenbar had purchased the material for an elegant trousseau, and, being fond of needlework made most of the articles herself. She laid out a cold $1,500 for this finery. Of course the clothes can still be used, although Emms will not wear them as Fran Ernest J. Weiss. A twelvemonth back, on the vigil of Thanksgiving Day, Emma accompanied a friend to Prof. Weiss's dancing academy. 207 East Twenty-seventh street. There she saw her fate in a beautiful pose teaching some young things deportment.

The following day they were introduced. And then Ernest began calling.

As a caller he possessed great staying powers and was a wonderful repeater. Wednesday and Saturday evenings the young things who depended on the Professor's knowledge of waxed-floor acrobatics for their accomplishments had to be put through their paces. But every other night found him in the Mollenbar parlor at 617 First avenue, murmuring into Emma's pink ear those rose-colored terms of endearment which Adam used to sight to Eve.

This was a sort of post-graduate course for the Professor, who was a two-year-old in widowhood, a former spouse having left him for heaven, leaving as a reminder a little Weiss of seven years, a beauteous boy.

Nothing could have been serener or more lovely. But Nov. 21 came, the bridal day. Alsa, the Professor came not. He sent a cruel letter to his fair-one, saying that it was off, that he loved not her brother, and hence could never marry her.

This seemed illogical, as he did not have could never marry her.

This seemed illogical as he did not have to marry Mr. Mollenbar, who is a professor of psychology and mesmerism. So Miss Mollenbar and her brother sought the this morning on a writ of habeas corpus, his counsel seeking to have him admitted to bail. The hearing was adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, to await the action of the Grand Jury.

That body found indictment of robbery in the first decree and a sault in the first degree against Meredith, Hermann, Addie Stanton and Ells Hammond to day.

The quariet will be arraigned before Judge Martine, in Part 1 of the Court of General Sessions, late this afternoon.

Lawyer Le Barbier, counsel for the women, says he thinks he can get them off; but he will not be ready for trial until after the holidays. He will try and have Addie Stanton bailed this afternoon. He says she can get bail in any amount up to $10,000.

NOT AFRAID OF THE CHICAGO POLICE. Valderman, the Anarchist, on His Way to

New York to Encourage His Brethren. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PITTSBURG, Dec. 11.-Valderman, a Chicago Anarchist, has been working with Pittsburg groups for several days.

He is now on the way to New York to encourage his brethren there.

He said they were not afraid of the Chicago police.

"If the entire police force of Chicago was massed in one street still the Anarchists have sufficient power to crush them," he said.

Pittsburg's May Festival. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,]
PITTSBURG, Dec. 11,—Gen. Harrison will be nvited to open the Pittsburg May festival. The nvitation will be engraved on steel plate. Clifton Entries for To-Morrow. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
CLIPTON (N. J.) RACE TRACK, Dec. 11.—Here

are the entries for Wednesday, Dec. 12: First Hase Parse $250; one mile. Falsehood, 118. Quincy, 115; Bright Eye. 115; Alex F., 115; J.J. Healy, 115; Ladite, 115; Brynwood, 115; Relax, 115 lb. 115 lb.
Second Race—Purse $250; seven furiouss.—Carnegie, 118; Lancaster, 118; Bishep, 118; Pat Daly, 118; Drumstick, 115; Speedwell, 110; Courtier, 110; 118; Lamester, 118; Bishep, 118; Pai Daly, 118; Primartel, 110; Speedwell, 110; Courtier, 110; Triuri Rant Purve 2550; mile and one-cighth; selling allowances. Eigin, 111; Richeleu, 110; Volatie, 108; Bellwood, 105; Adonia, 105; Full Sail, 90; Wheat, 96 lb.
Fourth Race-Purve 2500; handicap; meen furlenge, Adojub, 121; 50rid, 118; Lord Beacousheld, 111; Bonnie S. 111; Lancater, 105; Predigal, 105; Specialty, 104; Glory, 100; King Arthur, 99; Kary T., 90 lb.

Morning.

Three Men Killed and One Fatally Injured.

Hour of Great Excitement. Dynamite May Have Been the Cause of the

Disaster. CHICAGO, Dec. H.—An explosion took place

soon after 2 o'clock this morning in David Oliver's catment mill on North Halsted The sides of the building were blown out by the force of the explosion, and almost in a lash the entire mill was ablaze. The mill was in operation during the night s usual, and it is believed three men have lost their lives. The following named men are believed to have been killed:

CHARLES A. MILLER, night engineer. JOHN SMITH, millman. EARNEST CASPAR, second miller.

John Holmes, the second engineer, was blown out of the building into the street, s distance of over thirty feet. His injuries are blown out of the building into the street, a distance of over thirty feet. His injuries are very serious, but not necessarily fatal.

On the corner of Fulton street adjoining the mill was a double frame building occupied by Charles Murphy. The upper rooms were occupied by a family who miraculously escaped from the building after the roof had been blown off.

In the rear of the mill were a number of small residences and saloons. These are utterly demolished. The buildings on Haisted street opposite the mill are simost totally ruined.

The scene in the street in front of the mill is a chaos of the wildest description. Tons of bricks are piled upon the car tracks and the entire Fire Department is at work playing huge streams of water on the fiery mass.

Sensational rumors of the explosion being caused by dynamite are being circulated.

The Fire Department is of opinion that the explosion took place in the boiler-room.

The financial loss is about $78,000.

After the fire which took place was extinguished Marshall Gabriel commenced an investigation and satisfied himself that there were only three bodies in the ruins—those of Harnest Caspar, John Christianson and Charles Miller.

Oaspar was the cupola man, and he worked on the top of the mill. The cupola was hurled 100 feet away, and the body of the victim is in the ruins. Christianson was the kiln man, and his body is in the southwest corner of the mill. covered by tone of debris, Miller is the engineer, and is no doubt buried near the boiler.

Marshal Gabriel has a force of thirty men digging in the ruins.

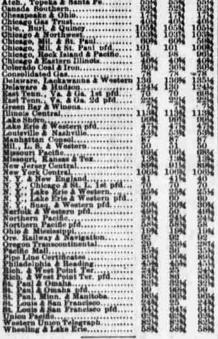

The boilers have been uncovered and it was Affocting Soone, Between the Prisoner and His Affanced.

Affocting Soone, Between the Prisoner and His Affanced.

Affocting Soone, Between the Prisoner and His Affanced.

The water was not be with a series of which the series of the series

New York Markets.

New York Markets.

Wheat.—May opened %c. above last night closing quotation, at $1.12%, and after advancing to $1.12%, declined to the opening quotation. Jan. opened at $1.00%; March, $1.00%. Chicago steady. Liverpool firm.

COTTON.—Futures opened strong at 1 point advance. Dec. 9.54; Jan. 9.66; Feb. 9.78; March, 8.90; April. 9.99; May. 10.09; June. 10.18; July, 10.35; Maug., 10.51; Sept., 9.95. Liverpool steady.

COFFER.—Futures opened steady at 25 to 40 points decline. Dec. 15.55; Jan. 15.70; Feb., 15.75; March, 15.90; April. 16; May, June. July and Aug., 16.05; Sept., and Oct., 16.15; Perragarus.—Pipe line certificates opened unchanged at $90c., advanced to 90%c., and at noon stood at $90c. Market firm.

Mrs. J. B. P. on the Witness Stund. WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The trial of Joe Brown, alias f. B. Buck, for stealing Mrs. Potter's diamonds and other jewelry at the Arlington Hotel last week, came up again in the District Court this morning. Mrs. Potter came over from Baltimore, where she is playing, and appeared as a witness.

THE LADY OR THE LAWYER.

A PLECE OF OLD RAG CARPET THE CAUSE OF A LIVELY ROW.

Middletown Social Circles Shaken by the Amenities Between Attorney Lovell Hall and Mrs. W. A. Brower-The Coroner Arrested for Assault and Fined $1-As Appeal to the Superior Court. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Dec. 11.-Attorney Lovell Hall, a leading member of the Middlesex County Bar and Coroner of this county, was arrested this morning upon a complaint charging him with an assault upon Mrs. W. A. Brower, wife of Broker Brower.

of this city. Mrs. Brower is a niece of Senator Allison. of Iowa, The two families occupy the same house on one of the principal streets of the

A piece of old rag carpet was the cause of all the trouble. The Browers occupy the lower half of the house. A short time ago they placed upon the front hall a new carpet. There being s much travel over it, Mrs. Brower placed an old piece of rag carpet upon it to protect it, Mr, Hall objected to having the obnoxious article there, and threw it out of doors. It was brought back and placed in position once more by the Browers.

Again it was thrown into the street by Hall. This performance was kept up until a day or two ago, when Hall undertook to throw it out again.

or two ago, when Hall undertook to throw it out again.

Mrs. Brower said that he should not and stood upon it to prevent him. Hall then gave it a jerk and Mrs. Brower was thrown to the floor. She is in a delicate condition and claims to have received mjuries from the fall, and has had physicians attending her since the affair.

Papers were served upon the Coroner this morning and he was arraigned before Judge Calef in the Police Court. He entered a demurrer to the charge. It was overruled by the Court and a fine of $1 imposed. He appealed the case to the Superior Court and gave bonds in the sum of $100.

The case is the talk of the place, as all parties concerned are prominent residents and highly respectable.

Mr. Hall is a graduate of Yale and has held the position of County Coroner for several years.

BOSTON WOMEN AT THE POLLS.

Out in the Rain, Voting on the School

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] BOSTON, Dec. 11.—The city election in Soston this year is the most remarkable for years, because of the intense interest mani-

Hot as the contest is for the Mayoralty and Board of Aldermen it is entirely overshadowed by the fight on the school quesfested in the result by the women.

At every precinct in every ward in the city to-day are stationed women ballor-distribu-tors with the ticket for the School Comtors with the ticket for the School Committee.

Despite the pouring rain, the woman vote has been very heavy in all the wards. In Ward Eleven over one hundred had voted up to 10 o'clock, and the indications are that at least twenty thousand female votes will be thrown in the city to-day.

Women in hacks are hurrying to and from the residences of the fair voters.

O'Brien and Hart are running close throughout the city. The indications point to the re-election of Honest Hugh by an increased major ty over his vote of 1887.

The disagreeable weather is a good omen for the Democracy.

THE PARNELL INVESTIGATION.

Inspector Ardie and David Freely Testify Before the Commission To-Day.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Inspector of Police Ardle gave his testimony in the Parnell Commission to-day regarding the disturbed con-mission to-day regarding the disturbed condition of affairs in County Mayo.

He said after the issue of the anti-rent manifesto crimes and outrages had increased very considerably. He knew there were secret societies, but did not know that the Government had such a society as a counter force to the League.

David Freely testified that his son was shot by moonlighters for paying his rent. He had belonged to the League until its suppression. He did not believe the League had been implicated in murder. Prests and the League had denounced the murder of his son.

son.

If a reduction of 25 per cent, was made in the rent the League had no objection to the payment,

TRENE'S BODY MAY BE IN THE TRUNK. Three More Arrests in the Hawes Case at [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 11.-Another negro has been arrested in the Hawes case, but the officers refuse to say whether they believe him guilty or not.

Birmingham, Ala.

Lake View is still being dragged in search of the body of little Irene Hawes, the missing daughter. Gov. Seay arrived at midnight.

the Ecening News office will be blown up by dynamite and military has gone to protect it. A trunk which is thought to contain the body of Irene has been found eight miles from the city.

Two negroes who were seen to carry the trunk off have been arrested. The trunk will be opened some time to-day.

A sensational rumor has been started that

Ocean Steamers in the Storm. The steamship Circassia, of the Anchor line which arrived from Glasgow to-day, reports that on Friday a heavy gale was encountered, which carried away three lifeboats and a por-tion of the railing.

The brig El Dorado, which arrived to-day from Laguna, Mexico, was obliged to put into Charleston, S. C., on account of the storm. The upper topsail was torn away by the storm.

After the Western Railroads (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,]
CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—It is said the Interstat Commerce Committee has already found evidence enough to convict every Western road of wholesale violation of Interstate law in the mat-ter of cutting rates. The Committee will hold a meeting this afternoon, to which all railroad menagers have been invited, and important de-velopments are looked for.

Mr. Morton Leaves for Indianapolis. Vice-President-elect Levi P. Morton, accompanied by his wife, left the city this forenoon for Indianapolis, where Mr. Morton is to confer with President-clost Harrison.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Galena and Yantio Are Finally Ordered to Hayti.

TO SAIL TO-MORROW

Admiral Luce Will Fly His Flag on the Galena.

The Owner of the Haytlan Republic Will be a Passenger.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The Galens and antie will sail to-morrow.

Orders were issued by the Navy Depart. ment to this effect to-day. They are instructed to go to Port au Prince, Hayti, to enforce the demand of this Govern-ment for the release of the American steamer Haytian Republic. They will sail in company and be under the

They will sail in company and be under the command of Rear-Admiral Luce, who has been instructed to transfer his flag from the Richmond to the Galerna.

The owner of the Haytian Republic by special permission of the Secretary of the Navy will be a passenger on the Galeria, and it is therefore expected that the vessel will be restored to him as soon as it gets into the possession of the navel officers.

Secretary Whitney returned from New York vesterday afternoon, and was at the Navy Department to-day.

SHE MENDED MR. B.'S SOCKS.

But That's Not the Worst Allegation Against Mrs. Van Name.

This morning, in the Supreme Court, be fore Judge Lawrence, Paul M. Van Kame rested his head on his hand and gave his testimony ma low tone of voice in the suit which be brought against Mr. Charles Stuart Bristend to get $25,000 as the price for the dienation of the affections of Mrs. Dorcas U. Van Name.

He had a headache and had passed a sleet less night. His now divorced wife listened with interest to what he said. Sometimes she smiled, sometimes she looked distres She was dressed in black silk, heavily trimmed with jet, and a stylish bounst graced her head. An illusion veil softened he her head. An illusion veil softened her handsome features.

Mr. Van Name admitted that he quarrelled with his wife at times, but said they always made up. He had never called her vile names. He could not recall what charges he had made against her in writing, but said they were true whatever they were.

The Van Names boarded at Mra. Wright's St. James Hotel, Port Richmond, S. I. Mr. Bristead was also a boarder at the St. James. He was a widower and Mrs. Van Names comceived a rather friendly interest in him.

She used to visit his room and darn his stockings, and Mr. Bristead used to hover about Mrs. Van Name's dressing-room before her tollet was fully completed.

Mrs. Van Name said there was no harm in all this. He had nobody, poor, dear man, to look after his socks, and there was nothing to object to in his talking to her while she was doing up her hair, was there?

Mrs. Wright thought these chearful, friendly relations might injure her business as a hotel-keeper, and bounced the Van

Mrs. Wright thought these chearfal, friendly relations might injure her business as a hotel-keeper, and bounced the Van Names. To spite Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Van Name induced Mr. Bristead to leave the horrid place. He did, and went to board at the same house as the Van Names.

Mr. Van Name used to go out for long walks Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Van Name did not go with him. Mr. Bristead did not go. One Sunday, when Mr. Van Name returned, he found Mr. Bristead leaving his wife's room, hastily putting on his clothes. When he went in he found the wife of his bosom at a stage of dress hardly suitable for receiving strange gentlemen in.

There was a row and a separation and them a suit. Mrs. Van Name, in the mean time, obtain: I a divorce and continued her relations with Mr. Bristead. Mrs. Van Name asys that when her husband left her be haved naughtily with a young female whom he had picked up at a Twenty-third street concert garden.

Stone & Callman are Mr. Bristead's lawyers. Ex-Senator Grady and Maurice Meyer are Mr. Van Name's counsel. Mr. Bristead retains great serenity.

THE MAYOR IN GOOD HUMOR. He Fleshes His Veteran Wit on the Board Mayor Hewitt was in a merry moodito-day.

He was full of quips, and made many a humorous comment during the session of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment. When Tax Commissioner Coleman spoke of the lease of rooms at 27 Chambers street, which it is proposed to secure for the City Court judges, as expiring on Jan. 1, the Mayor blinked at the reporters and said; "It Mayor blinked at the reporters and said; "It seems as though almost everything is to expire on Jan. 1."

When saked to pay $4,200 for the ballots on the constitutional amendment, the Mayor told Vice-President Dowling that he had a good opportunity to score Alderman Conkling and the other smart lawyers of the Board who allowed a return to go to the State Board of Canvassers, which resulted in the throwing out of the 187,000 ballots which the city is now asked to pay for.

But 'Twill Be Fair To-Morrow. WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. P. L.

For Eastern News York—Rain, Jolinson Wednesday by Jair; colder; northwestern

The Weather To-Day. Indicated by Blakely's tele-thermometer 1988, 1887. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. | 1888. |